Louis Kuchar's Vocation Story

Though the priesthood had always been a far-off possibility when I was little, the call became real in my junior and senior years in high school. At the time I was making life plans to have a job, to get married to an awesome Catholic gal, having a bunch of kids, and not to mention getting my dream truck. The call came about as a nagging in my mind and heart to the point where I could not dream of my happy married life without the thought of the priesthood coming to mind. It was the whisper, "what about priesthood." You can bet I tried to squash that unpleasant thought for a year and a half. To me priesthood was a giving up of everything, constantly denying the pleasures of the world to have a lonely life. Why choose that when the whole world was just opening with opportunity?

John Paul II and I have a pretty close relationship. He has always been a man I look up to. I got the chance in 2018 to visit his national shrine in Washington D.C. It was during this time that I was really wrestling with the priestly call. In the basement they were showing a documentary of his life and I sat down to watch. Quite suddenly, overcome in a moment of grace and no doubt the intercession of JPII, I recognized the call of my heart in the life of this great pope. I saw that JPII was a great saint because he said "yes" to the Lord, one yes after another. He was able to reach millions of souls by making himself available to the Lord's Will. I thought to myself, "I can't do all that yet, but I can say yes once, and then again and again." It was in that moment I chose to follow, which for me meant joining seminary.

Jacob Francois' Vocation Story

This month is known as vocation awareness month! Louis and I have been asked as the seminarians of the parish to share our vocation story with you. Louis has a much more exciting vocation story than me, but I'd be happy to share mine with you as well.

When I was a young kid in elementary school, we had some wonderful priests who were great examples of priesthood and inspired me to be a priest when I was young. However, as I moved into high school I had a girlfriend and I wanted to be a businessman and have a family. So I cast off the idea of priesthood. It wasn't until the influence of my youth minister and high school teacher that mentored me and my twin brother that I started to see the truth contained in the Church and experienced the true presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

It was through my mentorship with my youth minister that I chose the faith to be my own and wanted to serve Christ; which is also when Christ started asking me to be his priest. I dumped my girlfriend, entered seminary, and decided that this was the path that God was leading me on. Although I left seminary after one year, I knew that the Lord was asking me to be his priest and as I discerned how to fulfill that call, whether that be in a religious order or to return to my Archdiocese, I kept praying to the Lord to make it clear where he would like me to serve Him.

After teaching high school theology, becoming a youth minister, and getting a Master's degree in Krakow, Poland the Lord asked me to come home to the Archdiocese of Dubuque to be his priest. I am now happily studying at Mundelein Seminary and am excited to say 'yes' to Christ and be his priest.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES CHRISTMAS GIFT PROGRAM

The Catholic Charities Christmas Gift Program tags are in the gathering space this weekend and following weekends until they are all gone.

For those new to the parish and/or this program, one selects a tag, purchases a NEW gift (or gifts) for the person. Wrap the gift(s) and attach the tag with the name and CSP# showing, or write the name and CSP# on each gift for that person. Gifts are due back at the church ON OR BEFORE Dec 3/4 by 12pm on Sunday.

Immediately after the 11:30 mass on 12/4, we need help sorting all of the gifts by family, bagging them and loading them on to trucks. (Thank you Bekins Lake County movers for donating the trucks and drivers again this year!)

On Monday-Wednesday, Dec 5-7, we need volunteers to help check all of the bags at the warehouse.

If you have any questions or need more information, see Nancy Payonk or Carol Zimmer after all the masses.

"Wind Beneath His Wings Eagle" Raffle Quilt

This is my 8th year raffling off a quilt I make to honor my father, Joe Falotico, for all the years of helping "Santa". He played this big part for over 60+ years. My name is Diane Kennedy, I'm his daughter and I enjoy quilting. My thought was, this is a perfect way to give back by doing what I love to do, to a cause he so enjoyed being part of.

All the proceeds will go to The Celebration of Giving - Catholic Charities, from the tags St. Paul the Apostle Church puts out. I raise money by raffling off this quilt and then selecting tags for children as so many of you do, and I personally shop for them. I then return back with a truck load of gifts to help make a child's Christmas more special. In the past 8 years, I have been able to raise approximately $15,000! Last year Catholic Charities did an article on my story, if you'd like to check it out please look it up at keenagernews.org (NOV/DEC 2021 Vol. 53, No. 6).

I'm hoping with you & your willingness to help, we can make a difference again, with the chance to win this "Wind Beneath His Wings Eagle" Quilt as well. If you would like to purchase tickets, I will be at Masses on November 5/6. Please come see the quilt in person and get your chance to win it.

Tickets are $5 EACH or 5 tickets for $20

WHY IS IT
A man wakes up after sleeping
under an ADVERTISED blanket
on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower
shaves with an ADVERTISED razor
brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste
washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes
drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work
in an ADVERTISED car
and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
Later if business is poor
he ADVERTISES it for sale.
