15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“A Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight.” - Lk 10:33

Dear SPA Family,

We can ask ourselves: who is this Samaritan that Jesus talks about in the parable? He is, in fact, some unknown, descending from Jerusalem to Jericho by the road that passed through the Judean desert. We can't say much about him himself.

But it was he who became interested in the man who was attacked by robbers on the same road; robbed, beaten, abandoned, and half dead. Jesus says that a priest and a Levite who were involved in the worship of the temple in Jerusalem passed there before the Samaritan. They both noticed the poor man beaten, but they passed by indifferently, not stopping or helping.

On the other hand, when the Samaritan saw him, he was deeply moved. It was this emotion that prompted him to act. So, he went up to him, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them, and put him on his livestock, drove him to an inn, nursed him, and paid for his accommodation. In other words, he was deeply moved by the suffering of a person he met. He devoted his time, heart and resources to him. It is a beautiful example of charity.

The parable of the Good Samaritan shows what our relationship should be to our suffering neighbors, to people in need. We must not pass them by, or pass them indifferently, but we should stop by them and take specific action. The parable of the Good Samaritan is meaningful. Now, if we ask anew the question - just like at the beginning - who is this good Samaritan, we can already say much more about him.

A good Samaritan is a person who stops at the suffering of another human being. This stopping does not mean curiosity, but a willingness to help. A good Samaritan is a person sensitive to the suffering of others, a person of sensitive heart who is moved by the misfortune of his neighbor. A good Samaritan is a person for whom an emotion becomes a stimulus for action aimed at bringing help to others. A good Samaritan is one who helps in suffering and puts his heart and time into helping another person, but also does not regret material resources. A good Samaritan is a person who is capable of such a gift of himself. A good Samaritan is a person whose heart is good and generous, and fulfills the will of God, who wants mercy rather than sacrifice.

The parable of the Good Samaritan is meaningful, and it is also Jesus' answer to the question: Who is my neighbor? A neighbor is the one who keeps the commandment of love, who shows mercy. God always wants a merciful heart from everyone because He himself is merciful and understands well our afflictions, our difficulties and also our sins. A good Samaritan is a person who imitates God's mercy, mercy towards someone who needs him.

So, let us go, and do likewise! This is Jesus' invitation addressed to us today.

*Have a blessed week,
Fr. Chris*

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

GOSPEL MEDITATION

I used to be a bad neighbor. I'd get wrapped up in my life and ignore those around me. Then I found sage advice from Benjamin Franklin to this effect: to be a better neighbor, ask someone to do a favor for you. It's counterintuitive, isn't it? Tell strangers that I need their help? Yuck. I'll risk looking needy. Worse, I'll be indebted to them. But I tried it, and it works like a charm. Recently I asked my neighbor Alan for a hacksaw, and Inga for an egg. They kindly obliged, and our friendship is growing.

This week we hear a scribe of the law cynically ask Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29). Like him, we prefer to keep the list of our "neighbors" as short as possible. It requires less interruption and inconvenience. But when Jesus tells the parable of the Good Samaritan, he exposes the lonely, cold-heartedness tendency of the scribe's (and our) heart. My "neighbor" is anyone I encounter who manifests a concrete need. There isn't time to require any other credential because human need opens us to the happy reciprocity which is love.

Jesus' words challenge us this week to ask a neighbor for help in some small way. How marvelous that God himself shows us how. He moves into our world and asks us to love Him with small deeds of love. Maybe that's where Ben Franklin got the idea.

READING IDEUTERONOMY 30:10-14*

Moses said to the people:
 “If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God,
 and keep his commandments and statutes
 that are written in this book of the law,
 when you return to the LORD, your God,
 with all your heart and all your soul.

“For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you.
 It is not up in the sky, that you should say,
 ‘Who will go up in the sky to get it for us
 and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?’
 Nor is it across the sea, that you should say,
 ‘Who will cross the sea to get it for us
 and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?’
 No, it is something very near to you,
 already in your mouths and in your hearts;
 you have only to carry it out.”

RESPONSORIAL PSALMPSALM 69:14, 17, 30-31, 33-34, 36, 37*

Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

READING IICOLOSSIANS 1:15-20*

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God,
 the firstborn of all creation.
 For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth,
 the visible and the invisible,
 whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers;
 all things were created through him and for him.
 He is before all things,
 and in him all things hold together.
 He is the head of the body, the church.
 He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead,
 that in all things he himself might be preeminent.
 For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell,
 and through him to reconcile all things for him,
 making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

GOSPELLUKE 10:25-37*

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”
 Jesus said to him, “What is written in the law?
 How do you read it?”
 He said in reply,
 “You shall love the Lord, your God,
 with all your heart,
 with all your being,
 with all your strength,
 and with all your mind,
 and your neighbor as yourself.”
 He replied to him, “You have answered correctly;
 do this and you will live.”

But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus,
 “And who is my neighbor?”
 Jesus replied,
 “A man fell victim to robbers
 as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho.
 They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead.
 A priest happened to be going down that road,
 but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.
 Likewise a Levite came to the place,
 and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.
 But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him
 was moved with compassion at the sight.
 He approached the victim,
 poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them.
 Then he lifted him up on his own animal,
 took him to an inn, and cared for him.
 The next day he took out two silver coins
 and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, ‘Take care of him.
 If you spend more than what I have given you,
 I shall repay you on my way back.’
 Which of these three, in your opinion,
 was neighbor to the robbers’ victim?”
 He answered, “The one who treated him with mercy.”
 Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”

CATHOLIC Q & A

When Jesus says, "You cannot serve both God and mammon," what does he mean? What is mammon?

When you hear Scripture proclaimed each Sunday, remember it wasn't originally written in English. Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek — these ancient tongues were the original language of our Old and New Testaments. Most of the time, all of the words are translated into our native language. Sometimes, a word or two is left in the original language. Such is the case in this Scripture passage.

Mammon is an ancient Aramaic word referring to money, wealth, or profit. Earthly wealth isn't bad in itself, nor does it automatically exclude us from being a disciple of Jesus. But what dominates our life? To serve money — that is, to seek accumulation of wealth for its own sake and to structure our lives around it — is morally problematic. What good is our wealth if it isn't at the service of others? What good is our wealth if its pursuit leads us to selfishness, obsession, greed, envy, and comparison? There are many things that can be opposed to our service of God — power, prestige, and popularity. Ultimately, something in our lives will be our master. But there is only one God worth serving.

SAINT BIO

Our Lady of Mount Carmel

The origins of this feast reach all the way back to the Old Testament. In the book of Kings, we read the story of the prophet Elijah. Much of his prayer, fasting, and public ministry occurred from Carmel, a mountain in Israel. Christian hermits -- seeking solitude -- made their homes on the mountain during the first millennium. Over time, the hermits assembled into a community and were given a Rule of Life. They named their church after Mary -- Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Political upheaval forced the Carmelite order out of the Holy Land and into Europe, where they established monasteries for both men and women across the continent. Many great saints and doctors of the Church have come from the Carmelite order, including St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, St. Therese of Lisieux, and St. Edith Stein. Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Pray for us!

PRAYER - FOR EVERYDAY AND EVERYBODY

Prayer for Charity

Give me the grace, Lord, to truly see those around me: the overlooked, the uncomfortable, the odd and disliked. Your kingdom is one of belonging, help us to be the types of neighbors who see and respond with Godly generosity. Amen.
