TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Saint Paul
the Apostle

Dear SPA Family,

How contemporary are Jesus' words in this Sunday's Gospel: You cannot serve God and mammon! We really can't. Why? Anybody can be rich and a believer. He can strive for money, care for the family, for the future by working, earning money, and being a disciple of Jesus. However, Christ highlights a certain danger of wealth, or rather an attitude, that tends to have, accumulate, and feel safe.

Unfortunately, it happens that what was supposed to give freedom enslaves. What was supposed to secure our future, what was supposed to be a means to a purpose, becomes a purpose in itself. Some of us want to be free, so we work and earn money, and after a while it turns out that we're enslaved to it. Some of us have no time for our family, friends, no time for rest, no time for prayer, Holy Mass. God stays on the margins of our lives. How often, when talking to people, you can hear the words, I do not have time for Sunday Mass, prayer, because I am overworked, and I want to rest on Sunday. But I do believe, I am a believer, I'm spiritual.

But what is this faith that is not practiced? What about God in our lives, in our hierarchy of values? What about a quick prayer just before going to bed, maybe in the morning on the run, Mass from time to time, confession once a year... a minimum of Christian life.

People strive for everything necessary for life but what about spiritual life, what about eternity? Such a state is not often a lack of good will or a desire to meet God, but a lack of reflection, stopping, shallow life on the run, the result of living according to the schedule of meetings, activities to be performed. We cannot serve two masters!

We don't want to serve, but sometimes we turn out to be slaves without even knowing it. What to do in relation to the above? Stop working, make money, relying entirely on God? Go to church instead of going to work and everything will work out by itself? No, of course not! First of all, we need to stop, think where we're going and if we are really free in what we're doing. And let's trust God, rely on Him. He knows what we need. He knows! That's what faith is all about.

I once read an interview in one of the weekly magazines about a man who was the president of a large company. He had money, he could do a lot, almost anything. But when his wife contracted cancer, despite his influence, the use of the best drugs and the most modern treatments, it was not possible to save her life. When she died, he sold his stocks and shares in the company, left it all and bought a house in the countryside. He said that he understood that the greatest money, what he had been striving for so much, could not save his wife's life. He also realized how busy and focused on his work he was, and the only thing he could do was to change his life.

It is better to serve God, to have Him first in our life. If this is the case, there is certainty that money, wealth, or this generally understood evangelical mammon will not overwhelm us, it will not lead to our enslavement. God doesn't take our freedom, He doesn't manipulate us. He just shows that we are important to Him. strength to bear constant witness.

Have a blessed week,

Meet our new Seminarian- Louis Kuchar (Left)

My Name is Louis Kuchar. I was born in Boise, Idaho, and I am the second youngest of nine kids. When I was a junior in high school, me and my parents moved to Cedar Rapids, Iowa because of work. Being very catholic my whole life, I had always considered priesthood a distant possibility. I finally chose to enter seminary formation after beating around the bush for about three years at the end of high school. In large part, my decision was influenced by the intercession and example of St. John Paul II. Being my favorite saint, I looked to him frequently for inspiration and encouragement. One day, it struck me clearly that what made JP II a great saint who touched so many lives is due to his unwavering willingness to say yes to whatever God asked of him – just one yes after another. I began to think that I could do that too. If I just keep saying yes, who knows where I might end up? Thus far, I truly believe that God has led me to where I am, and I have done my imperfect best to say yes.

As soon as I entered seminary, I studied philosophy for four years at Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa. Now I am beginning my first year of theological studies at Mundelein Seminary. I am joyful that I get to spend this time of formation with the parish family of St. Paul the Apostle. Thank you for having me!

A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS

A FIVE-PART BIBLE STUDY FEATURING DR. EDWARD SRI

WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY STARTS SEPT 21

A 9-week course called "A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH THE MASS" will begin Sept 21 for morning (9:30–11am) and evening (6:30–8pm) groups. Using the book and video lectures by Dr. Edward Sri, we will learn how much of our Mass is rooted in the OT and NT scriptures, from the beginning sign of the cross, to the ending, thanks be to God! Seeing the Mass through this Biblical lens will help us grasp the reality of what God is doing in our souls through the Liturgy, and help us encounter Him more deeply in these mysteries. We will meet at the Parish House (6:30pm) for the evenings, and in Room 32 behind the kitchen (9:30am) for the morning group. Please REGISTER ONLINE on our website as soon as possible (for # of books needed), but pay for the book $15 at the first class. Any questions, please call Barbara Wagner at (847) 767 – 1202 or email barbarawagner25@earthlink.net for questions.

KNIGHTS CORNER

Since it has been a while since our last edition, here is a brief summary of the Summer events:

OUR GOLF OUTING was held on 7/16/2022 and a good time was had by one and all and we raised $1000 for our Knights of Columbus Charities.

OUR CAR SHOW was held on 8/27/2022 and we had great weather, a lot of fun and raised over $1500 for our Knights of Columbus Charities

OUR TOOTSIE ROLL DRIVES benefiting Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities concluded over Labor Day weekend and over all three drives we raised $3318. That will result in our State Council funding the State Charities, (Special Olympics, Wheelchair assistance, etc..) as well as almost $1000 to each of our local charities: SPRED here at St. Paul the Apostle, Warren Special Recreation Association, & Riverside Foundation. Thanks to all for their generosity for all 3 of these events.

We will be holding a RECRUITMENT DRIVE at St. Paul's the first 3 weekends of October. We encourage all men 18 years of age or older who are in good standing with the Church, and who have a desire to put their Faith into action in a meaningful way, to take this opportunity to get to know the Men we call Knights here at St Paul the Apostle and consider joining the Order. We will be in the Gathering Space the first 2 weekends meeting with potential candidates and discussing what we do as Knights as well as the benefits of being a brother knight. We will then culminate the drive with an Exemplification to the 1st - 3rd Degree of the Order after the 9:30 mass on 10/16/2022. This ceremony is now open to the public so we welcome all parishioners to attend and witness our Exemplification ceremony.

Sincerely, George Behr, Grand Knight, Knights of Columbus-
Divine Mercy Council
