SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT- WHAT ARE YOU THINKING?

BY: MARY PENICH

I've spent much of Lent 2022 considering all that Jesus said and did when he walked among us. Images from past visits to the Holy Land make these reflections quite vivid. Only remnants of the structures and streets of Nazareth remain. Still, those relics brought Jesus' childhood and early adulthood to life for me. Jerusalem teems with modern-day locals, businesses, and tourists. At the same time, ancient ruins and growth in the Garden of Gethsemane elicited visions of Jesus at work. Jesus' teaching, his kindness toward outcasts and his suffering and death overwhelmed me then, just as they do today. I find myself grateful, but also distraught in the face of how little we humans have changed since then...

I've also spent much of Lent praying for the people of Ukraine and for an end to the war on their country. My visits to Israel revealed unsettling aspects of life in a country whose enemies are only a border away. I shivered as our bus drove past barbed wire fences and minefields intended to keep Israel's enemies at bay. Jesus' contemporaries suffered under oppressive Roman rule. Our Israeli guide remarked that things haven't changed much for their descendants. As I turn my thoughts and prayers to Ukraine, I fully agree.

Every thought regarding the things Jesus said and did on our behalf is accompanied by a prayer for the survival of Ukraine and its people. More prayers have followed for those closer to home who also suffer. I've looked upward often to ask, "Jesus, what were you thinking back then? What are you thinking today?" Before he can answer, I remind myself that Jesus abandoned the God of vindication and punishment whom the Pharisees held up to the people, and I find myself with a glimmer of hope. Jesus revealed the God of mercy and forgiveness, acceptance and love to all who would listen. Jesus reveals the same to you and to me, to the people of Ukraine and to the suffering everywhere in this world of ours -even to Russian soldiers who may be serving more out of fear than resolve...

That first Palm Sunday, the people of Jerusalem waved palm branches and shouted hosannas to welcome Jesus into the city. I can't pretend to know Jesus' thoughts as the crowd cheered him on. I can only turn to the words and deeds that brought Jesus to that moment in time to gain some perspective. This one who rode into Jerusalem had arrived not many years earlier as the child of a tradesman and his wife. This one who agitated the scribes and Pharisees and who drew the Romans' scorn, grew into manhood among Nazareth's laboring citizens. Somehow, Jesus emerged to become teacher and brother to us all.

I also cannot pretend to know God's thinking through any of this. Jesus' life tells me that God remains ever steadfast in God's choice to love us. God sent Jesus to make that love known. Jesus began that work at a local wedding when he assisted friends who had run out of wine. Jesus sealed his commitment by seeking baptism from his cousin John. Jesus gathered a motley crew of followers who resemble you and me at our very best and our very worst. Then, Jesus taught those disciples how deeply God loved them and how important it was that they pay that blessing forward by loving one another.

Suddenly, I find myself with another question: What am I thinking in the midst of this world's troubles? When I read Luke's account of Jesus' passion, I must acknowledge that God didn't step in to change anything that transpired. We humans have been created with free will and, when Jesus was born as one of us, he was born with the same. Jesus' life ended as it did because nothing ever kept him from responding to those he met along the way. When some did their best to derail Jesus' work, Jesus responded with amazing wisdom which they couldn't refute. When some had no one else to whom to turn, Jesus responded with absolute love. When some who'd lost their way stumbled onto Jesus' path, he gave them direction with clarity and without judgment. When some pierced his wrists and feet with nails, Jesus forgave them with some of his last words.

What am I thinking in the midst of this world's troubles? I'm thinking that you and I are in unique positions to respond as Jesus did in ways only we can. You and I are invited to bask in hosannas, to embrace our lives' work and to hand ourselves over to whatever lies ahead. You and I are invited to change things for the better wherever we find ourselves, just as Jesus did. This week, you and I are also invited to experience the depth of God's love by walking with Jesus through his passion and death. Is there a better way to prepare for the work ahead?

OPERATION RICE BOWL

Lent 2022 begins on Ash Wednesday, March 2. Once again, our parish family will prepare for Easter through our participation in Operation Rice Bowl. We'll assist Catholic Relief Services in offering a hand up to the poor locally, throughout the United States and the world.

Beginning this weekend, Rice Bowls are available in the gathering space. Our religious education students will also take one home. We invite you to choose a way to set aside some coins or cash to fill that Rice Bowl to help someone in need.

At the end of Lent (usually the two weekends after Easter), we'll collect Rice Bowls, checks and your cash. You can also mail checks to St. Paul's or give that amount online. Please don't mail your checks to Catholic Relief Services as we'd like our parish to be credited for all of our donations.

Deacon Mike oversees this project every year, and every time he's amazed by your generosity. As always, he will see to it that every penny reaches Catholic Relief Services to be spent in service of the poor. This year, as we move into a bit of post pandemic normalcy, your efforts are more important than ever. Thank you!

We're Getting the Band Back Together!
(Our band of knitters and crocheters, that is!) Join the Knit-Purl-Pray Ministry in its mission to bring comfort to the community through prayer shawls, blankets and more!

The St. Paul the Apostle Knit-Purl-Pray Ministry (aka Prayer Shawl Ministry) welcomes parishioners to join the group for its upcoming in-person meeting on Tuesday, April 19, at 7:00 - 8:30 PM in the lower level gathering space. This group of enthusiastic, caring and creative individuals knit and crochet handmade prayer shawls that are blessed and distributed to members of our church community who are ill, grieving or in need of comfort. But the group creates so much more than shawls! Pre-pandemic, the ministry made prayer shawls, baby blankets, shawls for St. Paul RCIA candidates, baby hats and more! All ideas are welcome!

Did you start learning how to knit or crochet during the pandemic? Come join us and put your new skills to work for a great cause! All ages and levels of experience are welcome. Absolute beginners interested in learning how to crochet or knit should consider attending. Yarn and pattern ideas are available to get you started on your first project.
